Medical Term Quiz 1:

1. Integumentary refers to the
   A. Skin
   B. Groin
   C. Neck
   D. Abnormal Organs

2. Menarche refers to the
   A. Higher levels of brain function
   B. Development of a cyst
   C. Onset of menses
   D. Parasitic Infection

3. Palliative means
   A. Choosing the best care out several choices
   B. Something that make the condition worse
   C. Provide nutrition to the patient that can’t eat
   D. Relieving pain without treating the underlying cause

4. Aphasia is the inability to
   A. Hear and see
   B. Eat or Drink
   C. Walk or ambulate
   D. understand or express speech
5. Glomerulus is a tuft of small blood vessels called capillaries located within Bowman’s capsule within the
A. Heart
B. Kidney
C. Pancreas
D. Liver

6. Melena is
A. Dark blood in the stool
B. Bright blood in the sputum
C. Blood mixed in the urine
D. Internal abdominal bleeding.

7. Ataxia means
A. unable to make sounds
B. uncoordinated movements
C. irregular respiration
D. unable to articulate connect thoughts

8. Presbycusis is
A. coughing up phlegm or sputum
B. Abmornal sounds on the percussion of the lungs
C. Inability to coordinate vision with limp movement
D. Age-related hearing loss
9. The suffix for ‘breathing’ is:
A. -cide.
B. -ion.
C. -pnea.
D. -stasis.

10. The study of the structure, composition and function of body tissues is:
A. biology.
B. cytology.
C. endocrinology.
D. histology.

11. The suturing of a muscle is:
A. myoplasty.
B. myolysis.
C. myorrhaphy.
D. myotonia.