Gonstead Club focuses on Gonstead chiropractic, which is a specific approach within the field of chiropractic care that focuses on a thorough analysis of the spine and nervous system to identify and address vertebral subluxations. It was developed by Dr. Clarence S. Gonstead and emphasizes precision in spinal adjustments, using the 5 components of analysis: 1. X-ray analysis, 2. Visualization, 3. Intrumentation using nervoscope, 4. Static Palpation. 5. Motion Palpation. These five components help the doctors with their diagnosis and when they deliver a by hand manual specific adjustment. This method aims to promote optimal spinal health and restore proper nerve function to improve overall well-being.

SCU Healer's Studio

SCU Healer's Studio exists to support students and practitioners in cultivating energetic, emotional, and spiritual balance through regular self-care practices.

By prioritizing the nourishment of our own body, mind, and spirit, we restore our center—enhancing not only our well-being, but also our ability to study with clarity and become present, grounded clinicians. Through guided healing circles, meditation, Reiki, and community connection, we honor the truth that healing others begins by caring for ourselves first.
