New Student Club Introduction

Purpose:

The Council of Clubs and Organizations (CCO) fosters a culture that supports the mission of SCU, which includes developing opportunities for students to grow as leaders and professionals. Creating a new student club with goals that include meeting the needs of today's student body is a process that is valued and encouraged.

Process:

1. Fill out the application on the next page.
2. Email the application to CCO@scuhs.edu and wait for a response.
3. Questions? Email CCO@scuhs.edu
4. It is that easy!

Rules related to running a club:

1. Every club must have 6-7 members committed to joining the club.
2. Every club must have an advisor. The advisor can be a staff or faculty member.
3. If this is a technique club, the club advisor must hold an active license of the related technique and must be present each time the technique will be used.
